

Landau Forte Academy Greenacres

Our Academy Newsletter: 24th November 2017

Children in Need Friday 17th November — A very big thank you for taking part in our activities for Children in Need. We raised a massive £584.50

Christmas Fair — The PTA has arranged for the Christmas Fair to be in the style of a German Market. Many of the stalls will be outside. Please wrap up warm on the 8th December.

The Christmas Fair Donations and Non-Uniform days:- 1st Dec—Bottles and 8th December—Chocolate and cakes. Also the 8th December will be Christmas jumper day! Thank you for the toy donations received today.

Attendance — The Government have brought in new guidelines and procedures for attendance. We will be letting you know on a termly basis what your child's attendance is and if there is a cause for concern. In the past, although I cannot authorise holidays, I have not followed the procedure to fine parents/carers. With the new guidelines sent to Principal's/Headteacher's, I may no longer have a choice on this.

Lunchtime — The whole Academy has been using plates for lunch instead of the plastic trays. The children have been very good and have adapted to the systems. Thank you for your support in helping this to be a success.

Whole Academy Theatre Trips

This week, the whole school went to the theatre in Birmingham to see a fantastic production of David Walliams' "Awful Auntie".

The children really enjoyed the performance and were thrilled at the experience of being in a real theatre.

The acting was brilliant and the story was brought to life with magical sets and some very clever puppetry.

As usual, the children were extremely well-behaved and were a credit to Greenacres. Thank you to everybody involved!
